

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN RESEARCH AND PRACTICE IN THE FIELD OF AGING

ORGANIZATIONAL AND CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

What is SGS?

The Southern Gerontological Society (SGS) is a network of the South's most respected gerontology professionals, representing 14 southern states and the District of Columbia.

SGS members include educators, practitioners, researchers, health professionals, policy makers, students, and other community members. The mission of SGS is to provide the bridge between research and practice, translating and applying knowledge in the field of aging.

By joining SGS, you will connect into a collegial and supportive network and help enhance alliances which form vital collaborations between members.

SGS annual membership rates, conferences and other information can be found on the website at www.southerngerontologicalsociety.org

SGS MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

- Corporate: 1-year / 3-year (discounted rate)
- Organizational: 1-year / 3-year (discounted rate)

Nonprofits

Educational institutions, such as:

- Universities / Colleges
- Community Colleges
- Training Institutions

Aging-related government agencies, such as:

- Area Agencies on Aging
- State Divisions of Aging Services
- State Units on Aging

Contact us about other membership options including Individual, Emerging Scholar, Student, and Encore.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- The Organizational and Corporate memberships include SGS memberships for up to three (3) employees, with the organization or corporation receiving one vote.
- Discounts on SGS annual conference registration, exhibits, and advertising.
- One annual subscription to the Journal of Applied Gerontology (JAG), the official monthly journal of SGS. Organizations receive a single online access point, as well as access to archived JAG publications (1999-current).
- Annual subscription to The Southern Gerontologist, an SGS online newsletter that provides updates on applied projects, member activities, emerging issues, and other important news related to the field of aging and SGS activities.
- Preferential ad placement in the Journal of Applied Gerontology.
- Free access to SGS webinars.
- Free job postings on the SGS website.
- Opportunities for promoting research studies and recruiting study participants.
- Brand marketing on the SGS website and opportunities to share information through The Southern Gerontologist newsletter.
- Discounted article processing charges for those accepted to publish in the SGS open access journal Gerontology and Geriatric Medicine, published by Sage Publications.
- Access to member-only directory and forums and other networking opportunities.

P.O. Box 160, Taylorsville, NC 28681
admin@southerngerontologicalsociety.org
www.southerngerontologicalsociety.org
(866) 920-4660

